The college has organized programme called” MazhgilvithuMazhgil “(Be Happy by making others happy) in the Academic year of 2020-2021 for the Scavengers and Sweepers of Hasthampatti division on occasion of Diwali festival. The Institution has provided new dresses and sweets to their families. It has been provided for around 150 members who are all working in Hasthampatti division. It was always happy movement for the management to help and make Scavengers and sweepers celebrate their festival happily with their family members. It could be great appreciation and encouragement for them to do their work happily. It is one the great extension and holistic development activity which has been organized every year in the Campus.
